

The Big Five

By the time Washington State students leave high school, they will:

- * recognize landmark court decisions and legislation that affected and continue to affect tribal sovereignty;
- * understand that tribal sovereignty protects tribes' ways of life and the development of their nations;
- * understand that tribal, state, and federal agencies often work together toward the same goal;
- * explain the governmental structure of at least one tribe in their community; and
- * distinguish between federally and non-federally recognized tribes.
